

Gina M. Pereira, B.A.(Hons), LL.B., TEP
Philanthropic Fiduciary Director

Gina Pereira is a dynamic lawyer and trusted advisor with nearly twenty years of experience servicing private clients and closely held corporations worldwide. She has a sophisticated international background and experience in law, wealth management, and philanthropy. Gina's vision is a world where responsible stewardship of wealth permeates the way we invest, give back, do business, and consume.

In 2010, Gina founded Dana Philanthropy, a consultancy celebrated for its excellence as the recipient of the esteemed STEP Private Client Award for Philanthropy Team of the Year, 2018/2019. Dana Philanthropy was formed to offer bespoke strategic philanthropy, mission-aligned investing and impact investing services to an international clientele.

Admitted to the Law Society of Ontario's bar in 2002, Gina obtained the Trust & Estate Practitioner (TEP) designation from STEP in 2005. She earned certificates in grantmaking from NYU Academy for Grantmaking and Funder Education, impact investing from the IIX Impact Institute, and sustainable and responsible investment from US SIF. She served as an elected Co-Chair of the STEP Steering Committee for the Philanthropy Advisors Special Interest Group and is an invited member of the Responsible Stewardship of Wealth Committee.

Gina gives back to the community as a volunteer board member and advisor to charities and social enterprises. She is committed to supporting incarcerated and paroled individuals, enhancing opportunities for successful reintegration into society.
